

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

PROCLAMATION
by the Governor of the State of California

WHEREAS, thousands of Californians devote their time, energy and talents to public service; and

WHEREAS, from law enforcement and health care to transportation and education, public employees provide vital services to meet the needs of California's diverse population; and

WHEREAS, public servants make invaluable contributions to protecting and enhancing our quality of life; and

WHEREAS, National Public Service Recognition Week honors the men and women of federal, state and local government for their hard work and dedicated service to communities throughout the nation; and

WHEREAS, this year's Public Service Recognition Week celebration holds special significance as we honor the public employees who gave their lives on September 11;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GRAY DAVIS, Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim May 6-12, 2002 as "Public Service Recognition Week."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 6th day of May 2002.

Gray Davis
Governor of California
